

Name: _____ Date: / / Time: : ~ :

100%	~90%	~80%	~70%	69%~
(mistakes) 0	~	1	2	3~

- I Read the information in the box and complete the exercises.

You can make a compound sentence using a comma and the conjunction or. Try doing this below.

You can imitate another artist you can try to be original.

Combine the following sentences into compound sentences using a comma and or.

- 1) Art can entertain. It can inspire.

- 2) Art must make an impression. It will be ignored.

- 3) We may buy the portrait. She may give it to us.

II Read the sentences and answer the questions using a simple sentence.

1) Sally can paint a portrait of us, or we can simply have a group picture taken.

What can Sally do?

2) Rudy can wear a mask to the birthday party, or he can have his face painted.

What can Rudy wear?

III Read the passage. Then complete the sentence using words from the passage only to make a compound sentence.

What makes a piece of art interesting? The details may be fascinating. The message itself may be meaningful. The scene may be imaginative, showing a world never witnessed before.

The scene may be imaginative, or _____

Name: _____ Date: / / Time: : ~ :

100%	~90%	~80%	~70%	69%~
(mistakes) 0	-	1	-	2~

I Combine the following sentences using a comma and the conjunctions in the brackets.

1) The real world has limits. Our imaginations do not. [but]

2) Portraits were popular a century ago. Famous artists were often asked to paint them. [and]

3) Paintings can show familiar forms. They can present strange, abstract images. [or]

II Read the sentences and answer the questions using a simple sentence.

- 1) The totem pole was decades old, but it was still in good condition.

What was still in good condition?

- 2) We can all go to the art gallery together, or you can stay at home by yourself.

What can we do?

III Read the passage. Then complete the sentence using words from the passage only to make a compound sentence.

No artistic training is required for finger painting. You simply spread paint around with your hands and fingers. The art is fun to master. You can make any design that you like.

Finger painting requires no artistic training, and _____.

Name: _____ Date: / / Time: : : :

100%	~90%	~80%	~70%	69%~
(mistakes) 0	1	2	3-4	5-

I Complete the sentences using the vocabulary words below.

mural	art gallery	abstract
figure	sculptor	totem pole

- The _____ was big and finely carved, but Jason could not make out the complex animal shapes.
- She formed a man's _____ from wet clay, and it dried in a day.
- The _____ bought a fine piece of marble, but it broke.
- You can envy the _____ on your friend's wall, or you can get out your brushes and paint one.
- These modern paintings are _____, but those older paintings are realistic.
- The _____ had famous portraits, but we wanted to see more sculptures.

DI 16b

II Complete the sentences using the vocabulary words below.

gargoyle	chisel	portrait
realistic	sculpture	canvas artistic

- 1) Katie's watercolor paintings are as _____ as photographs, but her pencil drawings are not.
- 2) You can hang the _____ of your great-grandparents, or I can put it away for safekeeping.
- 3) Oil paints work best on _____, and watercolors work best on paper.
- 4) Scott has _____ ability, but Randy is more athletic.
- 5) The art of _____ has a long history, and Eric is studying it at school.
- 6) Sam placed a stone _____ at the gate, and Troy watched the faces of people walking by.
- 7) I like to carve with a _____, but others prefer a pocketknife.

Name: _____ Date: / / Time: : ~ :

100%	~90%	~80%	~70%	69%~
(mistakes) 0	1	2	3	4~

- 1 Complete the sentences using the words from the boxes below. Write in commas to separate sentence parts as shown in the example.

Example: She painted a portrait of her mother and father, and he chiseled a figure from a piece of wood.

at the stone gargoyle	you can run along
a wall of the building	an actor or a sculptor

- A mural covered _____ and a statue stood in front of it.
- The little boy made a face _____ _____ but it only watched him silently.
- He wants to be either _____ but his parents want him to be a doctor.
- We can see the art museum together, or _____ _____ by yourself.

DI 17b

1 Read the sentences carefully and write in a comma where necessary.

- 1) Some art students sketched on paper and others began to paint on canvas.
- 2) The roses in the painting look too big and the vase seems too long and narrow.
- 3) The posters and photographs are cheap but the original drawing is priceless.
- 4) The sculptor was satisfied with neither his marble statues nor his clay figures but he kept on trying.
- 5) I love the mural of blue sky and ocean but some of the paint is peeling.
- 6) The art gallery has paintings from the 14th and 15th centuries and outside there is a lovely garden.

KUMON®

DI 18a

Combining Sentences 2

DI 18

Name: _____

Date: / / Time: :

100%	~90%	~80%	~70%	69%
(mistakes) 0	~	~	1	2~

1 Read the passage and then complete the compound sentence using only the correct underlined words.

Michelangelo was a very gifted artist from Italy. He lived during the Renaissance, a time of great advances in art and science. The Renaissance took place between the 14th and 17th centuries. Michelangelo was a famous artist of that time.

- 1) The Renaissance saw great advances in art and science, and Michelangelo was known mostly as a painter and a sculptor. From the age of twelve, Michelangelo studied how to sculpt marble and stone. He learned the techniques of painting, such as color mixing, as well as how to paint on canvas and on walls. He was also talented in other artistic fields, such as building design and writing.

- 2) Michelangelo was known mostly as a painter and a sculptor, but _____

- II Read the passage and then complete the compound sentence using words from the passage only.

Around 1500, Michelangelo sculpted a marble statue of the Virgin Mary and Jesus called the Pieta. The sculpture shows the Virgin Mary holding Jesus' dead body. The two figures are life-sized. The Pieta is considered to be a masterpiece.

- 1) The statue of the Virgin Mary and Jesus is made of marble, and both _____.

The Pope, the leader of the Catholic Church, asked Michelangelo to paint the ceiling of Rome's Sistine Chapel. Michelangelo accepted this difficult task. The painting, which shows stories from the Bible, became his most famous work.

- 2) The Pope asked Michelangelo to paint the ceiling of the Sistine Chapel, and the artist _____.

Name: _____ Date: / / Time: : ~ :

100%	~90%	~80%	~70%	69%~
(mistakes) 0	-	-	1	2~

- I Read the passage and then complete the compound sentence using only the correct underlined words.

It took two years to finish the first half of the Sistine Chapel. Michelangelo painted on wet plaster, an art called fresco painting. One assistant laid the plaster, and another one mixed the paints. Michelangelo painted the fresco.

- 1) The assistants laid the plaster and mixed the paints, and _____.

While painting the ceiling, Michelangelo was usually lying on his back on a scaffold.* Each day fresh plaster was laid over part of the ceiling. He had to complete that portion quickly while it was still wet. He could not make mistakes.

- 2) Michelangelo had to paint the wet plaster quickly, and _____.

*scaffold a wooden or metal structure that construction workers stand on

DI 19b

- II Read the passage and then complete the compound sentence using words from the passage only.

For much of his career, Michelangelo worked for a powerful family called the Medicis. He made beautiful sculptures for them. Michelangelo even designed a plaza in Rome for this powerful family. His artistic works attracted much attention.

- 1) Michelangelo made sculptures for the Medicis, and he _____ Michelangelo's most famous sculpture is probably David. The sculpture shows David holding the sling he used to kill the huge Goliath. This scene is from a story in the Bible. However, the statue also represents the struggles of the artist's own people.

- 2) Michelangelo's David shows a scene from the Bible, but the sculpture _____

KUMON®

DI 20a

Combining Sentences 2

DI 20

Name: _____

Date: _____

Time: _____

100%	~90%	~80%	~70%	69%~
(mistakes) 0	1	2	3~

- I Complete the passage using the sentences below.

- Leonardo made achievements in science as well.
- Perhaps the most talented of them was Leonardo da Vinci.

The Renaissance produced many brilliant thinkers, and

1) _____

His portrait Mona Lisa and his painting The Last Supper are perhaps two of the greatest pictures ever painted. These masterpieces established his reputation as a painter, but

2) _____

- For example, he designed a flying machine.
- It was centuries until one flew successfully.

Leonardo planned many inventions. 3) _____

_____ The design was true to the basic design of a modern airplane. Of course, 4) _____

II Complete the passage using the sentences below.

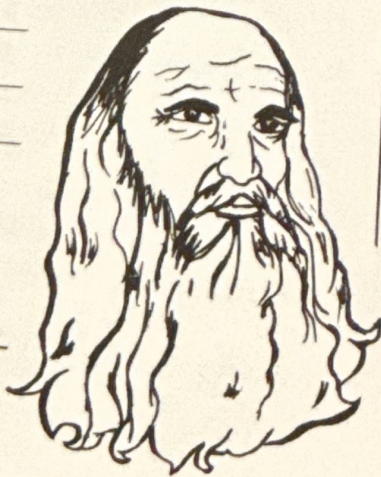

- Leonardo and Michelangelo were men of many talents.
- Mona Lisa shows a woman with a mysterious smile.
- Leonardo was also a sculptor.
- He is perhaps most remembered for his paintings.

1) _____ as well as an inventor and designer. However, 2) _____

_____. The Last Supper shows Jesus and his twelve followers dining, and 3) _____

4) _____

_____, and we call such people "Renaissance men or women."

KUMON®

DI 21a

Combining Sentences 3

DI 21

Name: _____ Date: / / Time: : ~ :

100%	~90%	~80%	~70%	69%~
mistakes (0)	1	2	3	4~

I When reading about graphic design, you may come across the following vocabulary words. Complete the passage using the vocabulary words defined below.

Graphic Design

font	a set of printing type in one style or size
geometric	made of basic shapes, like squares
image	a picture or object made to look like something or someone logo	a symbol that identifies a product, organization, or idea
palette	a range of colors used for a project
visual (ly)	having to do with or used in seeing

Graphic design is an art that uses objects and words to share information. It is everywhere from cereal boxes to video games.

Graphic designers may create an 1) _____ to be used as a 2) _____. Sometimes they combine 3) _____ shapes, like triangles and circles, with letters in a particular 4) _____. A designer may choose a 5) _____ that matches the subject of the item they make. For example, they may use blue, green, and tan to make a menu for a seaside café. These colors represent water and sand. Graphic designers keep the message clear and make their work 6) _____ pleasing.

- When reading about illustration, you may come across the following vocabulary words. Complete the passage using the vocabulary words defined below.

Illustration

illustrator (s)	someone who creates illustrations for some type of work instrument	a tool or device used for a certain purpose, like a marker or paintbrush
line art	a completed image made with only clear lines
pastel (s)	a chalk-like crayon used for drawing sketch (es)	a drawing often done quickly and without much detail style	a particular way something looks

Illustration is the art of creating pictures to express or help explain an idea. The images 1) _____ make vary widely in 2) _____. Some can be simple 3) _____ cartoons in black ink. Others can be realistic, full-color drawings like the ones found in medical books. Sometimes, when working on an image, illustrators make several 4) _____ first. This process helps them decide on a basic plan for how the final illustration will look. The illustrator might finish the picture using colorful 5) _____ or some other artistic 6) _____.

Date: / /	Time: : :
100%	~90%	~80%	~70%	69%~
mistakes (0)	-	1	-	2~

- Read the information in the box and complete the exercise.

Read the following sentences.

I have an old Superman comic book.

It came from my great-aunt.

phrase

You can combine these sentences using a phrase from the second sentence. Try doing this below.

- 1) I have an old Superman comic book _____

A phrase is a group of related words that lacks either a subject or a predicate or both.

Combine the following sentences using a phrase from the second sentence.

- 2) The posters were created. They were created by the art students.

II Read the sentences and answer the questions using complete sentence.

- 1) The largest display in Mrs. Tremblay's T-shirt shop was for the iron-on designs.

What was the largest display for?

- 2) My sister airbrushes artwork for customers on shoes and clothing.

Where is the artwork?

III Read the passage. Then complete the sentence by adding a suitable phrase from the passage only.

Graphic design can be just for the enjoyment of art. Museums around the world feature it in their galleries. However, it is most noticeable in advertising and product packaging. Designers try to create images that will get people's attention.

Graphic design is featured in art galleries but is most noticeable

Name: _____

Date: / / Time: : ~ :

100%	~90%	~80%	~70%	69%~
mistakes (0)	-	1	-	2-

I Combine the following sentences using a phrase from the second sentence.

- 1) Graphic designers like font collections. They like them for the different type styles.

- 2) Professional fonts work well. They work well in business documents.

- 3) Fun fonts are often used. They are used on children's party invitations.

DI 23b

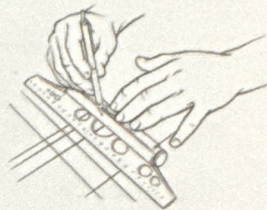

II Read the sentences and answer the questions using a complete sentence.

- 1) The nature reserve had geometric trail signs made from scrap wood and paint.

What were the signs made from?

- 2) Mr. Abdul had a pencil set used for mechanical drawings.

What was the pencil set used for?

III Read the passage. Then complete the sentence by adding a suitable phrase from the passage only.

When creating a design, good spacing is needed. There must be enough room for everything to fit well. Crowding too many words together makes it difficult to read. Too many images could make the sign visually confusing.

Good spacing is needed on a design _____.